

HEAD

Meaning: Head (noun): the uppermost part of the body containing the brain, eyes, and face, or the leader or chief of an organization or department.

1. He tilted his head to one side, pondering the question deeply.
 2. The head of the department announced a new policy during the meeting.
 3. She wore a beautiful headscarf that complemented her outfit perfectly.
 4. After the long hike, he felt a pounding in his head from the altitude.
 5. The statue had a striking head, carved with intricate details that captured attention.
 6. She decided to head to the beach early in the morning to avoid the crowds.
 7. After a long day at work, he felt a headache coming on and just wanted to relax.
 8. The teacher asked the students to raise their hands if they knew the answer, each eager to show their head knowledge.
 9. As the sun set, the hikers felt a sense of accomplishment as they reached the head of the trail.
 10. He wore a hat to protect his head from the harsh rays of the sun during the summer hike.
 11. She tilted her head to listen more closely.
 12. The head of the committee announced the new policy changes.
 13. He felt a sharp pain at the back of his head after the fall.
 14. The statue had a beautifully carved head that captured the artist's style.
 15. After a long day, all she wanted was to rest her head on a soft pillow.
 16. She decided to head to the beach early to catch the sunrise.
 17. The team gathered around their coach to hear his strategy for the big game ahead.
 18. With a sudden headache, he rested his head on the desk for a moment.
 19. As they approached the mountain's head, the view became increasingly breathtaking.
 20. She wore a beautiful hat that perfectly complemented her head.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/head>