

HEADLESS

Meaning: Headless refers to something that is lacking a head or representation of a head, often used to convey themes of loss, disconnection, or surrealism.

1. The headless horseman galloped through the dark woods, leaving a chilling legend in his wake.
2. In a surreal art exhibit, the artist displayed a headless statue to symbolize the loss of identity.
3. The headless chicken scurried across the farmyard, a bizarre sight that left everyone in disbelief.
4. Many horror films feature headless figures to evoke fear and suspense in their audiences.
5. After the accident, the headless mannequin in the store window became an unsettling focal point for passersby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headless>