

HEADLINE

Meaning: A headline is a brief, attention-grabbing title or phrase that summarizes the main point of an article or story.

1. The headline of the article caught my attention immediately.
2. She crafted a compelling headline that perfectly summarized the story.
3. Breaking news often demands a bold headline to draw in readers.
4. A memorable headline can make all the difference in attracting an audience.
5. The editor suggested revising the headline to better reflect the article's focus.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headline>