

HEADLONG

Meaning: Headlong means moving forward rapidly and without pause or hesitation, often in a reckless or uncontrolled manner.

1. He ran headlong into the crowd, eager to join the celebration.
2. The children tumbled headlong down the hill, laughing all the way.
3. She dove headlong into the project, determined to finish it before the deadline.
4. The car sped headlong towards the intersection, barely stopping in time.
5. He made a headlong decision to quit his job and travel the world.
6. She ran headlong into the fray, determined to make a difference.
7. The child leaped headlong into the pool, splashing everyone nearby.
8. He plunged headlong into his studies, eager to catch up before the exams.
9. The reckless driver sped headlong down the narrow street, ignoring all traffic signs.
10. Caught in a moment of passion, they kissed headlong, forgetting the world around them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headlong>