

HEADMAN

Meaning: Headman: a leader or chief of a village or community, often responsible for decision-making and conflict resolution.

1. The headman of the village called for a meeting to discuss the upcoming harvest.
2. In traditional tribes, the headman often acts as the mediator in disputes among the community members.
3. The headman's authority was respected by all, ensuring peace and harmony within the group.
4. During the festival, the headman gave a speech that highlighted the importance of unity and tradition.
5. As the headman, he was responsible for making critical decisions that affected the entire community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headman>