HEADNOTE

Meaning: A headnote is a brief summary or note that highlights the main points or principles of a legal case or academic article.

1. The judge's opinion included a comprehensive headnote summarizing the main legal principles of the case.
2. In academic writing, a headnote can provide readers with a quick overview of the article's key arguments.
3. The headnote at the beginning of the document indicated the relevant statutes and precedents.
4. Scholars often refer to the headnote to understand the context of complex legal rulings.
5. The headnote served as a useful guide, highlighting the critical findings without extensive reading.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headnote