

HEADROPE

Meaning: Headrope: a strong rope used to secure a boat to a dock or mooring, ensuring stability and safety in maritime conditions.

1. The sailor secured the boat to the dock using a sturdy headrope.
2. In rough seas, having a reliable headrope can mean the difference between safety and disaster.
3. During the storm, the crew struggled to untangle the headrope that had become caught in the rigging.
4. He inspected the headrope for wear, knowing it was crucial for maintaining the vessel's stability.
5. As they prepared to set sail, the captain reminded everyone to check the headrope for any frays or knots.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headrope>