

HEADSMAN

Meaning: Headsman: a person, typically an executioner, who is responsible for carrying out capital punishment, especially by beheading.

1. The headsman approached the platform with a solemn expression, ready to carry out his duty.
2. In medieval times, the headsman was a figure both feared and respected, often seen as an executioner of justice.
3. The novel depicted a dramatic scene where the headsman hesitated at the last moment, his conscience weighing heavily on him.
4. During the execution, the headsman's swift movements shocked the gathered crowd into silence.
5. Legends often romanticize the lives of headsman, portraying them as tragic heroes burdened by their grim responsibilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/headsman>