

HEART-WOUNDED

Meaning: Heart-wounded: deeply affected by emotional pain or sorrow, often due to memories or lost love.

1. She stared at the photograph, heart-wounded by the memories it stirred.
2. His heart-wounded expression betrayed the pain he tried so hard to conceal.
3. After the breakup, she felt heart-wounded and unsure of how to move on.
4. The heart-wounded soldier returned home, carrying both physical and emotional scars.
5. In her heart-wounded solitude, she found solace in writing poetry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heart-wounded>