

HEAT

Meaning: Heat is the form of energy that causes a rise in temperature, often felt as warmth from sources like the sun or hot surfaces.

1. The heat from the sun can be intense during the summer months.
 2. He could feel the heat radiating off the pavement as he walked.
 3. The chef adjusted the heat on the stove to simmer the sauce perfectly.
 4. During the heat of the battle, their focus remained unshaken.
 5. She wrapped herself in a blanket to escape the chill after the heat was turned off.
 6. The heat of the sun beat down on the beach, making the sand nearly too hot to walk on.
 7. In the kitchen, she carefully managed the heat to ensure the sauce simmered perfectly.
 8. His passion for science was ignited by the heat generated from the chemical reaction in the lab.
 9. During winter, the heat from the fireplace created a cozy atmosphere in the living room.
 10. The heat of the moment led him to make a decision he would later regret.
 11. The heat from the sun made the sand almost unbearable to walk on.
 12. She wrapped herself in a warm blanket to escape the chill and enjoy the lingering heat of the fireplace.
 13. During summer, the city often experiences a heat wave that pushes temperatures to uncomfortable levels.
 14. The scientist studied the heat generated by the chemical reaction to understand its implications for energy production.
 15. He felt a flush of heat rise to his cheeks when she complimented him in front of their friends.
 16. The heat of the afternoon sun made it impossible to stay outside for long.
 17. She felt a wave of heat rush through her body as she stepped into the sauna.
 18. The heat from the fireplace created a cozy atmosphere in the living room.
 19. He used a heat lamp to keep the newly hatched chicks warm and comfortable.
 20. During the summer months, the heat can become unbearable in some regions.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heat>