

HEATHER

Meaning: Heather refers to a low-growing flowering plant of the genus Calluna, often found in heathland and known for its small, pink or purple flowers.

1. Heather enjoyed the tranquility of the mountains, where wildflowers bloomed in abundance.
2. At the garden center, I found a beautiful heather plant that added a splash of color to my yard.
3. The heather-covered hills were a breathtaking sight, especially during the golden hour of sunset.
4. She wore a lovely heather sweater that perfectly complemented her green eyes.
5. As we hiked through the heather fields, the sweet scent of the flowers filled the air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heather>