

HEAVY-HEADED

Meaning: Heavy-headed refers to a state of feeling sluggish, drowsy, or mentally foggy, often due to fatigue or the effects of medication.

1. She felt heavy-headed after staying up all night studying for the exam.
2. The medication made him feel heavy-headed and lethargic throughout the day.
3. By the time the meeting ended, she was heavy-headed from all the complex discussions.
4. He struggled to focus, his thoughts muddled and heavy-headed from the long journey.
5. After the workout, she sat down, feeling heavy-headed and in need of hydration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heavy-headed>