

HECTOGRAPH

Meaning: A hectograph is a printing device that uses a gelatin surface to create multiple copies of a document or image from an original.

1. The teacher used a hectograph to create copies of the lesson plan for her students.
2. In the early 20th century, a hectograph was a popular tool for producing quick and inexpensive prints.
3. He learned how to operate the hectograph in order to duplicate his artwork efficiently.
4. Although now largely outdated, the hectograph was once widely used in schools and offices.
5. The vibrant colors of the ink used in the hectograph made the printed materials visually appealing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hectograph>