

HEDGER

Meaning: A hedger is a person who plants shrubs or trees to form a boundary or an investor who uses strategies to mitigate risk and protect assets from market volatility.

1. A hedger often plants shrubs and trees to create a natural boundary around their property.
2. Investors can benefit from being a hedger, as it allows them to protect their assets against market fluctuations.
3. The farmer decided to become a hedger by diversifying his crops to mitigate the risks of market volatility.
4. In gardening, a hedger can refer to someone who trims and shapes hedges to enhance the landscape's beauty.
5. As a savvy trader, she often acted as a hedger by using options to guard against potential losses in her stock portfolio.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hedger>