

HEED

Meaning: Heed (verb): to pay careful attention to or consider advice, warnings, or instructions.

1. It is important to heed the advice of those who have more experience.
2. She refused to heed the warnings about the approaching storm.
3. The teacher urged her students to heed their instincts during the exam.
4. He did not heed her pleas for help, which left her feeling abandoned.
5. Many people fail to heed the signs of burnout until it's too late.
6. Please heed the warnings given by the experts in this field.
7. It's important to heed the advice of those who have more experience.
8. She chose to heed her intuition rather than follow the crowd.
9. He did not heed the signs of impending danger, which put him at risk.
10. The teacher urged her students to heed the lessons learned from their mistakes.
11. Please heed the warnings about the severe weather approaching our area.
12. It's important to heed the advice of experienced mentors when starting a new career.
13. She finally decided to heed her doctor's recommendations after years of neglecting her health.
14. Despite the signs advising caution, he chose to heed his instincts and take the risk.
15. The teacher urged her students to heed their responsibilities and complete their assignments on time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heed>