

HEMATEMESIS

Meaning: Hematemesis is the vomiting of blood, often indicating a serious medical condition that requires urgent attention.

1. The patient was rushed to the emergency room after experiencing severe hematemesis.
2. Hematamesis can often indicate a serious underlying condition that requires immediate medical attention.
3. After the endoscopy revealed the source of the hematemesis, the doctors devised a treatment plan.
4. The presence of hematemesis in a child should always prompt a thorough investigation.
5. She was frightened when she noticed the hematemesis, fearing it could signal a life-threatening issue.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hematemesis>