

HEMOTHORAX

Meaning: Hemothorax is the accumulation of blood in the pleural cavity, often resulting from chest trauma.

1. A hemothorax can occur as a result of blunt or penetrating trauma to the chest.
2. Medical imaging is essential for diagnosing a hemothorax and determining its severity.
3. Patients with a significant hemothorax may experience difficulty breathing and chest pain.
4. Treatment for a hemothorax often involves draining the blood from the pleural cavity.
5. In some cases, a hemothorax can lead to complications such as infection or respiratory failure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hemothorax>