HERDGROOM

Meaning: Herdgroom: a person responsible for tending and managing a herd or flock of animals, particularly sheep.

1. The herdgroom skillfully tended to the flock, ensuring they were safe from predators.
2. As the sun began to set, the herdgroom whistled softly to call the sheep back to the pen.
3. Her father had worked as a herdgroom for many years, passing down his knowledge of animal care.
4. The herdgroom's bond with the animals was evident, as they followed him without hesitation.
5. During the summer months, the herdgroom would often lead the cattle to greener pastures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/herdgroom