

HERETIC

Meaning: A heretic is a person who holds beliefs or opinions that contradict established doctrines, particularly in a religious or ideological context.

1. The philosopher was branded a heretic for challenging the established beliefs of the time.
2. In a society that valued conformity, anyone who questioned the status quo was often labeled a heretic.
3. The heretic defended his radical ideas with passionate arguments, despite the risks involved.
4. Throughout history, many intellectuals faced persecution for being labeled as heretics by religious authorities.
5. She felt like a heretic among her peers, who were all fervently committed to traditional values.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heretic>