

HEREUPON

Meaning: Hereupon means "immediately following or as a result of that action or statement."

1. The committee convened and, hereupon, decided to extend the project's deadline.
2. He made his intentions clear, and hereupon, the negotiations began in earnest.
3. The evidence was presented, and hereupon, the judge rendered her verdict.
4. They signed the agreement, and hereupon, the partnership officially commenced.
5. With the completion of the first phase, hereupon, the team prepared for the final review.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hereupon>