

HERMITICAL

Meaning: Hermitical: relating to or characteristic of a life of solitude and seclusion, often for spiritual reflection or contemplation.

1. The monk lived a hermitical life, seeking solitude and reflection in the mountains.
2. Her hermitical retreat allowed her to explore her thoughts without the distractions of modern life.
3. The novel's protagonist chose a hermitical existence, shunning society to find inner peace.
4. His desire for a hermitical lifestyle stemmed from years of chaotic city living.
5. In a world filled with noise, she found comfort in her hermitical practices of meditation and journaling.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hermitical>