

HERR

Meaning: 'Herr' is a German term used to respectfully address a man, equivalent to "Mr." in English.

1. The old gentleman tipped his hat and greeted her with a polite "Herr" before walking away.
2. In many German-speaking countries, it is customary to address a man as "Herr" followed by his last name.
3. The title "Herr" conveys respect and is used similarly to "Mr." in English-speaking cultures.
4. At the formal dinner, each guest was introduced with their title, and he was honored as Herr Schmidt.
5. During the lecture, the professor emphasized the importance of addressing participants as Herr or Frau to maintain formality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/herr>