

HERRING

Meaning: Herring is a small, oily fish commonly found in coastal waters, often used in cooking or preserved as food.

1. The fisherman returned with a catch of fresh herring, ready for the market.
2. In Scandinavian cuisine, pickled herring is a popular dish often served with sour cream.
3. The herring school swam gracefully through the shimmering waters of the bay.
4. During the festival, vendors offered various preparations of herring, from smoked to fried.
5. Herring is an important fish in marine ecosystems, serving as a key food source for larger predators.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/herring>