

HETEROPHEMIST

Meaning: HETEROPHEMIST: a person who uses euphemisms to soften or obscure the impact of harsh or unpleasant realities.

1. The writer adopted a heterophemist approach, deliberately choosing euphemisms to soften the impact of harsh realities.
2. In his speech, the politician acted as a heterophemist, trading blunt language for more palatable phrases.
3. Her tendency to be a heterophemist often confused her friends, who preferred straightforward communication.
4. As a heterophemist, he believed that gentle language could foster understanding in difficult conversations.
5. The heterophemist style of the article made it easier for readers to engage with sensitive topics without feeling overwhelmed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/heterophemist>