

HIBERNO-CELTIC

Meaning: Hiberno-Celtic refers to the cultural and linguistic influences of ancient Celtic tribes in Ireland, particularly as they manifest in local dialects and traditions.

1. The Hiberno-Celtic influence on the local culture is evident in the dialects spoken throughout the region.
2. Scholars often debate the origins of Hiberno-Celtic, tracing its roots back to ancient tribes.
3. The Hiberno-Celtic artwork displayed in the museum reflects a unique blend of Irish and Celtic traditions.
4. During the lecture, the professor emphasized the significance of Hiberno-Celtic texts in understanding medieval history.
5. Many contemporary artists draw inspiration from Hiberno-Celtic motifs to create modern interpretations of traditional themes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hiberno-celtic>