

HIDROTIC

Meaning: HIDROTIC refers to a condition or disorder related to the production or function of sweat glands, particularly in the context of genetic or ectodermal dysplasias.

1. The dermatologist explained that the condition was linked to a rare hidrotic disorder affecting her sweat glands.
2. After extensive research, the team discovered a possible genetic mutation related to hidrotic ectodermal dysplasia.
3. Hidrotic skin conditions can lead to significant discomfort and require specialized treatment.
4. Many patients with hidrotic issues report an increase in symptoms during hot weather.
5. Understanding the mechanisms behind hidrotic reactions is crucial for developing effective therapies.
6. The hidrotic properties of the new fabric help regulate body temperature during intense workouts.
7. Her doctor recommended a hidrotic therapy to manage her excessive sweating condition.
8. Researchers are exploring the hidrotic effects of certain plants in developing natural antiperspirants.
9. The hidrotic response of the skin can vary significantly based on environmental factors.
10. Many athletes rely on hidrotic products to maintain comfort and performance in hot climates.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hidrotic>