

HIGGLER

Meaning: A higgler is a person who sells goods, often at markets, typically negotiating prices to attract customers.

1. A higgler at the market offered to sell fresh produce at a price that was much lower than the others.
2. The local higgler was known for her ability to negotiate better deals than anyone else in the neighborhood.
3. In the bustling bazaar, the higgler skillfully bartered with customers, always looking for the best price.
4. Despite the competition, the experienced higgler managed to attract a steady stream of loyal customers.
5. At the flea market, a higgler showcased unique antiques, drawing in collectors from all over the city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/higgler>