

HIGH-BRED

Meaning: High-bred refers to an animal or person that is of superior breeding or lineage, often exhibiting refined characteristics or qualities.

1. The high-bred horse won the championship race with grace and speed.
2. Her high-bred lineage was evident in her refined manners and poise.
3. The dog was a high-bred German Shepherd, known for its intelligence and loyalty.
4. He insisted that only high-bred wines should be served at the gala dinner.
5. In the world of fashion, she was admired for her high-bred taste and style.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-bred>