

HIGH-FINISHED

Meaning: High-finished: characterized by a polished or refined appearance, often resulting in an elegant and aesthetically pleasing look.

1. The high-finished furniture in the living room instantly elevated the home's aesthetic.
2. She wore a high-finished dress that shimmered beautifully under the lights.
3. The artist displayed a series of high-finished sculptures that captivated the audience.
4. His high-finished resume helped him stand out among other candidates for the job.
5. The high-finished details in the design showcased the craftsmanship of the artisans involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-finished>