

HIGH-GO

Meaning: High-go (verb): to strive for an ambitious goal or take significant risks to achieve success.

1. The athlete decided to high-go for the gold medal, pushing her limits like never before.
2. In the game, players were encouraged to high-go and take risks to secure a victory.
3. He realized that to achieve his dreams, he had to high-go beyond his comfort zone.
4. The artist aimed to high-go with her latest exhibition, showcasing her most ambitious work yet.
5. During the presentation, she urged her team to high-go and think outside the box for innovative solutions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-go>