

HIGH-HOLDER

Meaning: High-holder: a person or entity that holds a leading or superior position in a competition or industry.

1. The high-holder in the competition surprised everyone with their remarkable performance.
2. As a high-holder in the industry, her insights are highly valued by her peers.
3. During the meeting, the high-holder of the company presented their ambitious plans for the future.
4. The high-holder status granted him access to exclusive resources and networking opportunities.
5. Everyone looked up to her as a high-holder, setting standards that others aspired to achieve.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-holder>