

HIGH-MINDED

Meaning: High-minded refers to having noble or elevated principles and ideals, often associated with moral integrity and a commitment to justice.

1. Her high-minded ideals often led her to take a stand against injustice.
2. The high-minded approach of the organization attracted many like-minded individuals.
3. Despite his high-minded aspirations, he found it challenging to navigate the complexities of real life.
4. She admired his high-minded philosophy, which focused on the greater good rather than personal gain.
5. In a world full of cynicism, his high-minded sincerity was a breath of fresh air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-minded>