

HIGH-SEASONED

Meaning: High-seasoned refers to food that is richly flavored with a variety of spices or seasonings, often enhancing its taste significantly.

1. The restaurant is known for its high-seasoned dishes that burst with flavor.
2. Traveling during high-seasoned months can often lead to crowded attractions and higher prices.
3. The chef's high-seasoned recipes have gained popularity among food enthusiasts.
4. During the high-seasoned period, many hotels offer special promotions to attract tourists.
5. Her high-seasoned cooking style is a perfect blend of spices and fresh ingredients.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-seasoned>