

HIGH-STEPPER

Meaning: A high-stepper is a performer or dancer who moves with an exaggerated, lively gait, often characterized by high leg lifts, typically in a theatrical or rhythmic context.

1. The high-stepper pranced across the stage, captivating the audience with her elegant movements.
2. At the annual parade, a high-stepper led the marching band, setting a lively rhythm for everyone to follow.
3. His confident demeanor and high-stepping gait made him the center of attention at the gala.
4. The high-stepper's performance was a stunning display of agility and grace that left the crowd in awe.
5. As a former dancer, she couldn't help but admire the high-stepper's flawless technique during the competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-stepper>