

HIGH-STRUNG

Meaning: High-strung refers to being overly nervous, anxious, or easily agitated.

1. She tends to be high-strung, often getting anxious over the smallest details.
2. The high-strung nature of the dog made it difficult for the owner to train him effectively.
3. During the stressful exam period, I found myself feeling more high-strung than usual.
4. Her high-strung personality clashed with the calm demeanor of her partner.
5. In the high-pressure environment of the office, it's easy to become high-strung and overwhelmed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-strung>