

HIGH-TONED

Meaning: High-toned: characterized by elegance, sophistication, or a refined quality.

1. The high-toned atmosphere of the gala was both elegant and intimidating.
2. She spoke in a high-toned manner that seemed to elevate the conversation.
3. The critics praised the high-toned performance for its emotional depth and sophistication.
4. Despite its high-toned reputation, the restaurant welcomed diners from all backgrounds.
5. His high-toned ideals often clashed with the realities of everyday life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/high-toned>