

HIGHER-UP

Meaning: A 'higher-up' is a person in a position of greater authority or rank within an organization.

1. The manager decided to escalate the issue to a higher-up for a quicker resolution.
2. After the meeting, she felt it was necessary to consult a higher-up about the budget concerns.
3. He was surprised to learn that the project had caught the attention of a higher-up within the company.
4. In order to implement the new policy, approval from a higher-up was essential.
5. She often sought advice from her higher-up, who had more experience in navigating corporate challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/higher-up>