

HIGHFALUTING

Meaning: Highfaluting refers to language or behavior that is pompous, pretentious, or overly elaborate, often to the point of being confusing or inaccessible.

1. His highfaluting speech was filled with jargon that left the audience confused rather than impressed.
2. The author's highfaluting prose made the novel difficult to read, despite its intriguing plot.
3. She often described her neighbor's pretentious taste in decor as highfaluting and unnecessary.
4. Despite his highfaluting claims of expertise, he struggled to answer even the simplest questions.
5. The critics dismissed the actor's highfaluting performance as more style than substance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/highfaluting>