

HILAL

Meaning: HILAL refers to the crescent moon that signifies the beginning of a new month in the Islamic lunar calendar.

1. HILAL signifies the crescent moon, often marking the beginning of a new month in the Islamic lunar calendar.
2. During Ramadan, Muslims often look to the sky for the sighting of the HILAL to commence their fasting.
3. The festival of Eid al-Fitr is celebrated with great joy after the sighting of the HILAL at the end of Ramadan.
4. In Islamic culture, the HILAL is not only a symbol of faith but also a reminder of the passage of time.
5. Many mosques feature the HILAL in their architecture, reflecting its importance in the Islamic tradition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hilal>