

HILLOCK

Meaning: A hillock is a small, rounded hill or mound of earth.

1. The children ran up the hillock to catch a better view of the sunset.
2. After the rain, the hillock was covered in a blanket of vibrant green grass.
3. A small cottage sat perched on the top of the hillock, offering a peaceful retreat.
4. As they hiked through the forest, they stumbled upon a charming hillock filled with wildflowers.
5. The hillock served as a natural landmark, guiding travelers through the winding trails.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hillock>