

HIPPOPHILE

Meaning: Hippophile: a person who loves or is passionate about horses.

1. A true hippophile, she spends her weekends volunteering at the local horse rescue.
2. His collection of equestrian art and books clearly identifies him as a dedicated hippophile.
3. As a hippophile, she often participates in community events that promote horse riding and care.
4. The hippophile felt a deep connection with the majestic animals as they galloped through the fields.
5. In every conversation about horses, his passion for them as a hippophile shines through.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hippophile>