HISTOID

Meaning: Histoid refers to a tissue appearance that resembles normal histological structures, often used in the context of tumors or lesions in pathology.

1. The histoid appearance of the tissue sample indicated a rare type of tumor.
2. In dermatopathology, the term histoid often refers to lesions that resemble normal tissue structures.
3. The researchers focused on histoid variants of the disease to understand their unique characteristics.
4. Histoid changes in the skin can sometimes complicate the diagnosis of underlying conditions.
5. She studied histoid formations under a microscope to better understand their cellular composition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/histoid