

HISTOLYTIC

Meaning: HISTOLYTIC refers to substances or processes that promote the breakdown or dissolution of tissue, particularly in the context of tissue regeneration and healing.

1. The histolytic process is crucial for tissue regeneration after injury.
2. Researchers are exploring histolytic agents to enhance wound healing in clinical settings.
3. In certain experimental models, histolytic activities have shown promise in targeting cancer cells.
4. The histolytic response can significantly alter the dynamics of cellular repair mechanisms.
5. Understanding histolytic pathways may lead to innovative therapies for autoimmune diseases.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/histolytic>