

HITCH

Meaning: Hitch (verb): to obtain a ride or transport from someone, or to encounter a temporary obstacle or interruption.

1. She managed to hitch a ride to the concert with a friendly stranger.
2. The dog got its leash caught on a tree branch, causing a small hitch in our walk.
3. We had to hitch our plans to the weather, as rain was forecasted for the weekend.
4. After a slight hitch in the presentation, the team smoothly continued with their pitch.
5. He decided to hitch his wagon to her ambitious plans for the future.
6. The car broke down just a few miles into the trip, leaving us with a hitch we hadn't anticipated.
7. She managed to hitch her skirt up just enough to avoid the puddle while walking down the street.
8. After a few hitches in the plan, we finally arrived at the event without any further issues.
9. He had to hitch a ride from a stranger when his phone battery died in the middle of nowhere.
10. The hitch in the performance was quickly resolved by the talented stage crew.
11. He managed to hitch a ride with a friendly passerby.
12. The horse was ready to hitch to the cart as soon as they arrived.
13. She felt a hitch in her voice as she tried to speak about her feelings.
14. Despite a few hitches in the plan, the event turned out to be a success.
15. They decided to hitch their dreams together and start a business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hitch>