

HMOSTATIC

Meaning: Hemostatic refers to substances or processes that promote the cessation of bleeding or the stopping of blood flow.

1. Hemostatic agents are critical in controlling bleeding during surgical procedures.
2. The hemostatic response is vital for preventing excessive blood loss after an injury.
3. Research on hemostatic properties of various natural substances has gained significant attention.
4. In emergency medicine, effective hemostatic techniques can save lives in trauma cases.
5. The development of new hemostatic dressings has improved patient outcomes in wound care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hmostatic>