

HOARD

Meaning: Hoard (verb): To accumulate and store away a large quantity of items or resources, often excessively or for future use.

1. She decided to hoard her savings for a future emergency.
 2. The old man would often hoard newspapers, filling every corner of his tiny apartment.
 3. As the storm approached, many families began to hoard supplies like water and non-perishable food.
 4. He had a tendency to hoard unnecessary items, believing that they might be useful someday.
 5. Digital currencies have led some investors to hoard virtual assets in hopes of future gains.
 6. She decided to hoard canned goods in preparation for the upcoming storm.
 7. The collector's desire to hoard rare coins often left him with little room in his home.
 8. Despite his wealth, he chose to hoard his money instead of sharing it with those in need.
 9. The ancient civilization was known to hoard valuable resources in case of famine.
 10. As a child, she would hoard her favorite toys, refusing to share them with anyone.
 11. The old man kept a secret hoard of coins hidden beneath the floorboards.
 12. During the financial crisis, many people began to hoard essential supplies out of fear.
 13. She had a tendency to hoard old newspapers, believing they might be useful someday.
 14. The archaeologists discovered a hoard of ancient artifacts buried in the sand.
 15. After years of collecting, his attic became a hoard of forgotten treasures and memories.
 16. She decided to hoard her savings in case of an emergency.
 17. The old man was known to hoard newspapers and magazines in his attic.
 18. During the winter, many animals hoard food to survive the cold months.
 19. It's not healthy to hoard possessions to the point where it clutters your living space.
 20. Despite the advice to declutter, she continued to hoard items that held sentimental value.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoard>