

HOARED

Meaning: Hoared: (verb) to become covered or encrusted with frost or ice, often resulting in a bleak or desolate appearance.

1. The once vibrant garden now hoared under the weight of winter's chill.
2. As the storm approached, the waves hoared against the rocky shore.
3. He felt his dreams hoared by the harsh realities of life.
4. The abandoned house stood hoared, losing its battle against time and nature.
5. She hoared with a sense of nostalgia as she revisited her childhood home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hoared>