

HOBBLE

Meaning: HOBBLE (verb): to walk in an awkward or unsteady manner, often due to injury or physical limitation.

1. After twisting her ankle, she had to hobble to the nearest bench for a rest.
2. The old man could only hobble slowly down the street with his cane.
3. The injury caused him to hobble awkwardly, making every step a painful ordeal.
4. They watched in concern as the injured dog tried to hobble towards them.
5. His pride was bruised when he had to hobble away from the competition in defeat.
6. After twisting her ankle, she had to hobble to the nearest bench for rest.
7. The old man began to hobble down the street, relying heavily on his cane.
8. His pride was wounded when he had to hobble away from the race, unable to finish.
9. The injured dog would hobble on three legs, trying to keep up with its owner.
10. Despite his injury, he managed to hobble into the room to join the celebration.
11. After twisting her ankle, she had to hobble home on crutches.
12. The old man would often hobble down the street, stopping to chat with neighbors.
13. His injury made it difficult for him to walk normally, forcing him to hobble along.
14. The horse began to hobble after stepping on a rock, visibly limping with each stride.
15. Even though he was in pain, he tried to hobble over to help his friend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hobble>