

HOBBLINGLY

Meaning: HOBBLINGLY: in a manner characterized by difficulty in walking, often due to injury or age-related limitations.

1. She approached the finish line hobblingly, her ankle swollen and painful.
2. The old man was hobblingly making his way down the street, leaning heavily on his cane.
3. After the fall, she walked hobblingly, each step a reminder of her unfortunate accident.
4. The dog followed its owner hobblingly, clearly struggling to keep up with the pace.
5. He spoke hobblingly, his words slurred from exhaustion and discomfort after the long hike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hobblingly>