HOGBACK

Meaning: HOGBACK: A steep, ridged landform characterized by a sharp crest and sloping sides, often formed by erosion of tilted sedimentary rock layers.

1. The hikers marveled at the impressive hogback formation that rose sharply from the valley floor.
2. Geologists often study hogbacks to understand the geological history of the region.
3. As the sun set, the shadows cast by the hogback created a dramatic landscape.
4. The ancient hogback was a significant landmark for early settlers navigating the rugged terrain.
5. Birdwatchers flocked to the area, hoping to catch a glimpse of rare species nesting in the cliffs of the hogback.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/hogback